Dr. Trenace N. Richardson

Keynote Speaker | Leadership Mentor | Author | Educator

About Dr. Trenace

As an award-winning speaker, educator, author, and leadership researcher and mentor, Dr. Trenace Richardson has spoken to audiences across the country, helping individuals, businesses, religious and civic organizations excel in the areas of personal empowerment and leadership development. She has an innate ability to connect with diverse audiences across various disciplines. Through her extensive education, research, and leadership experience, Dr. Richardson has developed Soul Centric Leadership, a paradigm of leadership that equips audiences to lead and live with soul. She does this by providing strategic guidance on what it means to practice authenticity, empathy, and vulnerability at work and in life.

Dr. Richardson is the CEO of Trenace Richardson Enterprises, LLC and the founder of REAL Women Inc., a premier membership community that creates safe spaces for women to do personal development work on themselves through live and virtual sister circles and the REAL Women Personal Development Institute.
